

Delta Vision Blue Ribbon Task Force

February 7, 2007

Phil Isenberg, Chair. Chair Isenberg has served as president of Isenberg/O'Haren Government Relations since 2005. From 2004 to 2006, he was a member of the board of directors for the 21st Century Insurance Group. Chair Isenberg previously served in the California State Assembly, where he was a member of the Water, Parks and Wildlife Committee. He served as chair of the California Marine Life Protection Act Blue Ribbon Task Force from 2004 to 2006 and is a member of the American Civil Liberties Union, Sierra Club and the Sacramento Valley Conservancy.

Monica Florian. Ms. Florian most recently served as senior vice president for the Irvine Company from 1978 to 2004. Prior to that, she worked as assistant planning director for the City of Huntington Beach from 1973 to 1978 and was an associate planner for the County of Riverside from 1970 to 1973. She is a former member of the Nature Reserve of Orange County, Upper Newport Bay Watershed Executive Committee and the California Council for Environmental and Economic Balance.

Richard Frank. Mr. Frank currently serves as the executive director of the California Center for Environmental Law and Policy at Boalt Hall School of Law at the University of California, Berkeley. Prior to that, he was the chief deputy attorney general for legal affairs at the California Department of Justice, where he worked from 1997 to 2006. He previously held the positions of chief assistant attorney general, senior assistant attorney general, supervising deputy attorney general and deputy attorney general at the California Department of Justice. He is a member of the Environmental Law Section of the California State Bar and the Planning and Conservation League.

Thomas McKernan. Mr. McKernan currently serves as chief executive officer of the Automobile Club of Southern California and Auto Club Enterprises, where he has worked since 1966. He is the chair of the California Business Roundtable and serves on the board of the California State Chamber of Commerce. He is also a member of the Forest Lawn Memorial Parks Association.

Sunne Wright McPeak. Ms. McPeak currently serves as president and chief executive officer of the California Emerging Technology Fund. From 2003 to 2006, she served as secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency. Ms. McPeak formerly was president and chief executive officer of the Bay Area Council, where she established and led major regional initiatives. Prior to her time at the Council, she served three years as president and chief executive officer of the Bay Area Economic Forum.

William Reilly. Mr. Reilly is a founding partner of Aqua International Partners, under the Texas Pacific Group, an investment company where he has also served as a senior advisor. From 1989 to 1993, Mr. Reilly served as the seventh administrator of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. Prior to that, he was president of the World Wildlife Fund from 1985 to 1989 and held the same position at the Conservation Foundation from 1973 to 1989.

Raymond Seed, Ph.D. Dr. Seed has served as a professor of civil and environmental engineering for the University of California, Berkeley, since 1987. Previously, he was an assistant professor of civil engineering for Stanford University from 1983 to 1986. Dr. Seed is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers and the International Society for Soil Mechanics and Geotechnical Engineers.

John Kirlin, Executive Director. Mr. Kirlin has more than 30 years experience in policy analysis, administration and financing directed at complex public problems, especially in California. His expertise includes state-local fiscal relationships, regional governance, land use, and environmental and species protection policies. He most recently served as executive director for the California Marine Life Protection Act Initiative. As an elected fellow of the National Academy of Public Administration, Mr. Kirlin has served as an environmental policy advisor to the U.S. Congress and the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. He held faculty positions at the University of Southern California for nearly 30 years and at Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis for 5 years. Mr. Kirlin has a deep appreciation for agriculture as well, having grown up on a farm in Iowa and currently is the owner of a vineyard in Napa.